

Highlights

- 2010 accumulated consolidated revenues through December were the equivalent of 100.433 billion pesos, an 11.1% increase compared with the same period a year earlier.
- At the end of December 2010, there were 23.4 million accesses or Revenue Generating Units (RGUs) in the different countries in which we operate, representing a 29.9% increase compared with the end of December 2009.
- 2010 accumulated consolidated EBITDA(1) totaled 27.459 billion pesos, a 24.0% increase compared with the same period of the previous year.
- For the same period, operating income totaled 9.019 billion pesos, a 15.2% decrease compared with the end of December 2009.
- Corresponding EBITDA and operating income margins were 27.3% and 9.0% respectively, compared with 24.5% and 11.8% for the same period a year earlier.
- 2010 accumulated consolidated majority net income was 5.010 billion pesos, or a 44.9% decrease compared with the same period of last year. This decrease can be explained by the generation of extraordinary exchange rate gains during 2009 and a larger depreciation expense.
- At the end of December 2010, total consolidated debt was the equivalent of 4.056 billion dollars. This debt amount was contracted in each country where we operate and is denominated in the corresponding local currency.
